Text for questions number 10 and 11

Dear James,
Thank you for your former letter. I'm glad that you're taking part in the conference about Russia!
It's so wonderful!
The history of my native country is great! Russia is famous for its achievements and outstanding personalities. As for the most important events in the history of Russia, it's The Great Patriotic War. Russian people fought for their motherland and happiness of future generations. I think that Russian commander G. Zhukov who took part in the war of 1941 - 1945 is really a great figure in our history. Besides, my town is related to the great past of Russia. It was the place of terrible battles during the war.
Keep in touch!

Best wishes,
Igor

It was a dark and stormy night. The whole of Greentown was covered by dark clouds. Christopher was returning home. It started raining.

Suddenly he saw a U.F.O. appearing from the clouds above. In no time it landed on the road. Three aliens came out. Chris was astonished as he could understand their language. Their plan was to take all the trees away from earth. Not wasting a moment, Chris called his friends. Those aliens pointed out to a tree. An eerie blue light shot out from their hands making a tree vanish. Soon, Chris's friends arrived. They tried to scare those aliens by throwing stones, but in vain.

Luckily, Mr. Goon, the fat inspector of the area arrived. With a frightened look on his face, he shot at those aliens. One of them pointed his finger at Mr. Goon. To everyone's amazement, Mr. Goon became as thin as a stick. Everybody laughed. Suddenly, Anna, Chris's friend, ran towards them, shouting at the top of her shrill voice. Those aliens got the fright of their lives and vanished along with their spaceship. The kids were delighted. They had saved their planet. Mr. Goon was left fiddling with his pants.

20. How did the alliens vanish along with their spaceship?
- A. Anna shouted loudly at them.
 - B. Mr. Goon frightened and shot at them.
 - C. Christ's friends scared them by throwing stones.

Last year my family and I went to the most amazing holiday to Spain. We had never been to Spain before and my Dad wanted to go there because he said that he was fed up with sitting around in the damp and gloom!

When we arrived at the villa it was baking hot. The first thing that Dad did was to take a shower. He said that he needed to cool off after such a long journey. There was a swimming pool so we spent a lot of time mucking about in the water and splashing water over Dad!

One afternoon we went to visit some caves in the hills. Inside the caves were the most amazing stalagmites and stalactites. They were knobbly and looked like massive, misshapen spears. Some were like bars in a zoo. In the caves it was quite cold.

On the third day we visited a beach. The waves were just right for surfing so we hired some body boards. Dad was worried that we would drown so he spent the afternoon standing in the sea watching us. It was a breeze!

One of the best things about the holiday was that Dad was so useless at cooking that we had to go into the town every night to eat. There was a stall where you could buy chips and calamary. When we got home Mum wanted to see all the photos. I had a magnificent picture of Dad's very red face from too much sun. All in all I think that it was a great holiday and I can't wait to go back.

23. "Dad was worried that we would drown so he spent the afternoon..." (paragraph 4).
The underlined word means
- go down the water
 - float around the water

How to Connect Laptop to TV - Step by Step

1. Most computers have an S-Video port that can be connected to the S-Video input of your TV screen using a very cheap S-Video cable (this cable is round with 4 or 7 pins). If you have an older monitor, you can use the 15-pin VGA cable to connect the computer to the TV and it will offer better picture quality than the S-Video cable.
2. You need a 3.5 mm Mini Plug to RCA Cable Stereo to connect the audio line out from a notebook to your TV. The red cable connector goes into the red socket of your TV, black connector into the black socket while the black connector goes into the 3.5 mm headphone jack of your computer.
3. Open the "display settings" on your Windows computer and activate the output to the TV screen. You can either mirror content of your computer on the TV or extend the display just like a dual monitor screen. If you are using Windows 7, press the keyboard shortcut Windows + P to quickly access the display settings or search for "Connect to External Display" in the Windows Run box.
4. Pick up your TV remote and swift to "External Inputs" from the menu. You will need to change the default "Video 1" to a different selection which may be "HDMI 1" or "Video 2" depending on how you have made the connection.

27. "Pick up your TV remote and swift to "External Inputs" from the menu." (number 4).
The underlined words means

Pesut Mahakam

A long time ago, there was a village in East Kalimantan. The village was near the Mahakam River. Most of the villagers lived in that village were poor men. Although they were poor, they were very happy. They also helped each other.

In the village, there was a rich family. The head of the family was Pak Pesut. He was known not because of his wealth, but because his stinginess. He did not like to help others. That's why Pak Pesut's family always lived alone and never mingled with others.

It was a very hard season. All the rice fields could not get water properly. The villagers could not harvest the rice. Therefore, all villagers were planning to leave their village and find other places to stay. Then they sent some young men to look for a place that had enough water for their rice fields.

After several weeks looking for a new place, finally those young men arrived. They found a waterfall. Later, all the villagers rushed to the new place. Then a villager went to Pak Pesut's house to inform about the waterfall. The villagers knew it was useless. So, they all left him and his family alone in the village. When they arrived at the new place, they all were very happy. They had enough water from the waterfall.

In the mean time, Pak Pesut and his family were beginning to worry. Their rice slowly was gone. It was in the morning when Pak Pesut's wife was cooking their last portion of rice. Suddenly, someone knocked the door. A beggar came to his house.

Pak Pesut immediately asked his family to eat the rice. He was worried the beggar would enter his house and stole the rice. Later, Pak Pesut and his family ate the rice. It was very hot. They rushed to Mahakam River. It was so hot that they finally jumped to the river.

The beggar saw the incident. Then he prayed to God. Amazingly, Pak Pesut's family slowly changed into fish. The fish looked like dolphin. Since then, everybody named the fish as Pesut fish.
