Dear Nathan,
I just learned of the four-year scholarship you got from Doe University.
Congratulations!

Your grandmother and I have watched you struggle with balancing your part-time job and your studies as you maintained that "A" grade point average. We know you will enjoy your advanced studies at Doe University. We're so proud.

Love,
Granny and Grandpa

Every time I remember this, I always laugh. At that time I was eight years old. My friends and I were playing in a playground. We played a game of hide and seek. We played happily.

It was my turn to look for my friends who were hiding. I was looking for them one by one and managed to find them. However, one of my friend named Hadi was very clever in hiding. It is so hard to find him that I had to keep looking for him. I remembered that Hadi wore a red shirt and blue pants. When I passed an elephant statue in the park, I saw a kid wearing a red shirt and blue pants. Without thinking, I immediately approached him. After getting close, I pulled him and took him to my friends. I wanted to tell them that I had managed to find him. However, I became speechless when I saw Hadi was standing beside my friends.

He greeted me, "Hey, why did not you find me?"

I was confused. Then I saw my friends laughing. Then I looked to the child who I pulled near the elephant statue. I was surprised that it was not Hadi but he was someone else wearing the same clothes. The boy looked at me with disgust. All of my friends were laughing at me. I was so embarrassed that I wanted to run out of there.

Finally, I apologized to the boy which I had pulled. Since then I was always called as Mr. Clumsy by my friends.

Greedy Boy

Sam and Tom were identical twins. They were so identical that even their mother found it difficult to distinguish one from the other, at least during their initial days on earth.

However, they were very different from each other when it came to everything other than their appearance. Sam had no friends, while Tom was a great friendship maker. Sam loved sweets, but Tom loved spicy food and detested sweets. Sam was mommy’s pet and Tom was daddy’s pet. While Sam was generous and selfless, Tom was greedy and selfish!

As Sam and Tom grew up, their father wanted to share his fortune equally amongst them. However, Tom did not agree and he argued that whoever proved to be more intelligent and strong would have to get a bigger share of the wealth.

Sam agreed. Their father decided to organize a competition between the two. He asked the two sons to walk as long as they could, and return home before sunset. The wealth would be divided in proportion to the distance covered. As a rule of the competition, they were not permitted to carry a watch to keep track of the time.

The following day, Sam and Tom set out to walk. It was a rather sunny day. Sam walked slowly and steadily, while Tom broke into a sprint as he was bent on winning the race and also winning a greater portion of his father’s wealth.

Sam knew that it would be ideal to walk as far as possible till noon and start for home at noon as it would take the same amount of time to walk back home. Knowing this, Sam decided to turn back for home at noon so as reach home on time.

However, Tom, with his greed to earn more wealth, did not attempt to return home even after mid-noon. He walked twice as long as Sam, and thought he would still be able to return home before sunset. He hurried back when he saw the sun turn orange. Unfortunately, he could not even make it half way home as the sun started to set. Slowly darkness engulfed his path and he had to drag his tired feet back home.He had lost the race.

Sam agreed. Their father decided to organize a competition between the two. He asked the two sons to walk as long as they could, and return home before sunset. The wealth would be divided in proportion to the distance covered. As a rule of the competition, they were not permitted to carry a watch to keep track of the time.

The following day, Sam and Tom set out to walk. It was a rather sunny day. Sam walked slowly and steadily, while Tom broke into a sprint as he was bent on winning the race and also winning a greater portion of his father's wealth.

Sam knew that it would be ideal to walk as far as possible till noon and start for home at noon as it would take the same amount of time to walk back home. Knowing this, Sam decided to turn back for home at noon so as reach home on time.

However, Tom, with his greed to earn more wealth, did not attempt to return home even after mid-noon. He walked twice as long as Sam, and thought he would still be able to return home before sunset. He hurried back when he saw the sun turn orange. Unfortunately, he could not even make it half way home as the sun started to set. Slowly darkness engulfed his path and he had to drag his tired feet back home. He had lost the race.

Kartini was conceived in 1879 April 21 in Mayong Jepara. Her dad was Rama Sosroningrat a Wedana in Mayong. Her mom, Ma Ngasirah was a young lady from Teluk Awur town in Jepara. As the little girl of a respectable family, she felt fortunate in light of the fact that she got more than the standard individuals got. She improved her cleverness than other youngsters. In November 12 1903 she married Adipati Djyodiningrat, the head of Rembang . As Javanese custom Kartini has to obey her spouse. At that point she moved to Rembang.

In September 13 1904 she gave birth her child. His name was Singgih. Anyway, after she bore her child, her condition was deteriorating and she at last passed away on September 17, 1904 on her 25 years of age.

Kartini's concerns were not only in the area of the woman emancipation, but also other problems of her society. Kartini saw that the struggle of women to obtain their freedom, autonomy and legal equality was just part of a wider movement.

Inspired by R.A. Kartini's example, the Van Deventer family established the R.A. Kartini Foundation which built schools for women, 'Kartini's Schools' in Semarang in 1912, followed by other women's schools in Surabaya, Yogyakarta, Malang, Madiun, Cirebon and other areas.

In 1964, President Sukarno declared R.A. Kartini's birthday, 21 April, as 'Kartini Day' as a national day off. This decision has been criticized. It has been proposed that Kartini's Day should be celebrated in conjunction with Indonesian Mothers Day, on 22 December so that the choice of R.A. Kartini as a national heroine would not overshadow other women who, unlike R.A. Kartini, took up arms to oppose the colonizers.

Presently Kartini has gone. Anyway, her soul and dream will dependably be in our heart. Nowadays Indonesian lady advancement is affected by Kartini's soul expressed on accumulation of letter "Habis Gelap Terbitlah Terang" or from the nightfall to the first light.

32. What is the purpose of writing the text?

- A. To describe Kartini's struggle in Indonesian's advancement.
- B. To inform Kartini's struggle in Indonesian Independence.
- C. To describe Kartini's struggle in women emancipation.
- D. To announce the women emancipation's figure.

Once upon a time, there was a little poor boy came into a little village. He was very hungry and weak. He knocked at every door and asked for some food, but nobody cared about him. Nobody wanted to help the little boy.

Finally, a generous woman helped him. She gave him shelter and a meal. When the boy wanted to leave, this old woman gave him a lesung;, a big wooden mortar for pounding rice. She reminded him, please remember, if there is a flood you must save yourself. Use this lesung; as a boat. The lesung;

The boy was happy and thanked the old woman. The little boy continued his journey. While he was passing through the village, he saw many people gathering on the field. The boy came closer and saw a stick stuck in the ground. People challenged each other to pull out that stick. Everybody tried, but nobody succeeded. Can I try? asked the little boy. The crowd laughed mockingly. The boy wanted to try his luck so he stepped forward and pulled out the stick. He could do it very easily. Everybody was dumbfounded.

Suddenly, from the hole left by stick, water spouted out. It did not stop until it flooded the village. And no one was saved from the water except the little boy and the generous old woman who gave him shelter and meal. As she told him, he used the lesung; as a boat and picked up the old woman. The whole village became a huge lake. It is now known as Rawa Pening Lake in Salatiga, Central Java, Indonesia.

Flamingos are pretty well-known for their vibrant pink color and long legs and neck. Their appearance is very unique from other birds, which makes them stand out among the crowd.

Flamingos can be found in a variety of habitats and adapt well to both cold and warm climates. They are mostly found in South America and Africa. Regardless of exactly where we find flamingos, they are water birds, so they will always be near lagoons or lakes.

They filter the food they eat from the muddy water below by using their unique bills. The bill of a flamingo is adapted for filter feeding, and their fleshy tongues also aid in the process. Flamingos mostly eat algae, larvae, and small crustaceans, because they generally live near lakes, swamps, and wetlands. They also dine on shrimp and mollusks.

41. What is the topic of the text?
- A. Birds with pink feathers.
 - B. Animals eaten by flamingo.
 - C. Birds which live only in lakes.
 - D. Habitats where water birds live.
